WHS Students Visit FHTC

By: Kristin Berroth

On Tuesday, November 16, Mrs. Workman and thirteen juniors traveled to Emporia for a conference called Focus at Flint Hills Technical College. Juniors who were interested in going into any technical fields took part in the conference. The students were able to go to different career fields to see what the careers consisted of. Many students came back excited about their career discoveries.

Community Clean-Up A Success

By Cristy Flippin

The students at Wabaunsee spent Friday, November 19th giving back to the community. The students and staff spent the day in Alma, McFarland, Maple Hill, and Paxico. It was a fun day and very productive. A big thanks goes out to the students that participated, the city helpers, the staff, the parents that helped, and the people that donated to the clean-up day.

Have A Happy Thanksgiving!

When and where were you born? Gaithersburg, Maryland, 1986.

What was your high school prank? My English teacher, my senior year, was obsessed with ducks. So some of my classmates and I, took all the ducks she had in her room and hid them in the ceiling tiles. She was freaking out and it was hilarious.

Who is your idol and why? Erin Andrews, because she has my dream job.

Do you have any siblings? Yes, three. Nikeena, Tim, and Natalia.

What's your most embarrassing moment? A couple years ago I went to a KU vs. Mizzou game at Arrowhead Stadium, and I stole this big stuffed tiger off of someone's tailgate. I dragged it around the game and KU fans were kicking it and making fun of it. I thought it was so funny until someone stepped on the tiger and I face-planted in front of the Mizzou fans.

Favorite quote?
